Spring Intramural Slate Lists Outdoor Sports

With the weather and the BYU institutional calendar in mind, the intramural program for a while behind had, according to Bill Haken, intramural director, will get back into full swing this week.

MOST AFFECTED by the bad weather was the softball program which is in its third week of play. Early favorites in the soft ball tourney are the tri-collegiate Knights and the Gators.

The softball games are played each night except Friday on the field west of the Fieldhouse.

Table tennis has entered its second round while the horse shoe doubles started last night. TWO TEAMS have qualified in the badminton double tournament for the semifinals while four groups have yet to get through the quarter finals. The team of Anderson-Schroeder will go against Houston-Smith for a bid on the finals while the other finalist will be selected from the winner of the quarter finals.

But for the tennis doubles tournament which starts May 1 and also scheduled to begin May 3. The intramural office reported that paddleball doubles will also observe the same closing date.

One of the big events planned by the Intramural Department for this spring is the annual Intramural track meet. All of the participating groups in the program at the present time are expected to enter teams. According to the Director, this will be run in the same fashion as a regulation meet.

Tennis, Track Golf Squads Go This Week

Baseball will spark this week's athletic action on the Brigham Young University sports grounds.

The BYU nine will host Utah State in a double header Saturday afternoon at the Timp Salt Park. The Cougars were beaten by Utah 4-1 Friday and played a return contest with the Dixie Monday afternoon at Provo. Results of Monday's game were not known at press time.

The Aggies took both ends of a double-header from Montana last weekend.

Meanwhile, BYU endermen will take on Montana on the Cougar oval Saturday afternoon. Most of the Cat thrashers have had two weeks rest, even though a few of Coach Clarence Rasmussen's men participated in the BYU Invitational Meet last weekend.

Golf and tennis will also be in the BYU sports picture as the two squads will host Utah State also on Saturday afternoon.

COLLEGE JOURNALIST

headlines Jockey brand underwear news

"I never feel beat on my beat," writes Snop McGenthauser, as reporter. "That's because I insist on the casual comfort of Jockey briefs. Believe me, Jockey will put the 30 at the end of your underwear ad story!"

It's no news (and that's good news) to most men that wearing Jockey Underwear means casual, at-ease appearance? Better drop into your dealer's store... buy a supply of Jockey briefs and T-shirts, and feel as good as you look.

It's in style to be comfortable... in Jockey underwear.

JACK'S BATCH

by Jack Smith

The culmination of 30 days intensive football training is on tap for tomorrow night when the annual Brigham Young University Blue White football game gets underway at 8 p.m.

Thus game will have more than just casual football interest for the students and the fans from this area, as it marks the first public display of the "new" Cougar football machine, as it is referred to locally. The new rule of Coach Hal Kipper and his assistants are made to be subject to some criticism come kickoff time Wednesday evening.

In watching the workouts of the BYU graders we have been fairly impressed, but that doesn't constitute the opinion of everybody, so we hear it is suggested that those wanting to see the top football squads in action come to this game. And just in peering stuff, remember that the best from these two teams will be representing the Blue and White come the wars next fall.

Pep Groups to Perform

According to the Pep Activities committee, the spring pep class, will have on hand the Cougar Marching Band, complete with flag twirlers and song leaders. This marching band, under the able direction of Dick Ballou, has been consistently rated as one of the top in the country for the two years that it has been organized. Due to the shortness of the quarter and the amount of practice time that has been available, they probably won't be able to show off their high stepping formations, but a lot of good listening is as sure you can bet.

Rival Coaches Interested Too

Also scheduled to be on hand for the big game are the full coaching staffs of Utah State and the old U of U. Both En Fiance and Jack Carter will be intensely interested in the progress of the Big Man as he has repeatedly went into their own backyards and recruiting strongholds to make speeches, talk to high school and stars and in general bring BYU out of its football doldrums as far as the people of Utah and the Skyline conference are concerned.

The enthusiasm has rubbed off on its staff too, as Tully Stevens, Max Tolbert, Owen Beeson, and Allen Davis have been busy running around the country talking to alumni, appearing at banquets, and contacting high school footballers in most of the western states.
